

A SOLDIERS PLEDGE

The soldier doesn't expect acceptance
for whatever he has done.
The act of serving for others sake
Means that he has won.
He'll face the terror of combat stings
And defy the threat from foes.
He'll feel the tears that heartache brings
To those he loves and knows.
He'll carry on to keep them freed
Because he knows it's best
He'll stand his ground and fill the need
Until they put him at his rest.
